New Business:

Wayne Erwin, Code Enforcement Officer, weekly report included the following properties in violation of City Ordinance 2000-09 subject to cost of mowing/raking/clean up and administration fee of $100.00 according to the recommendation of Code Enforcer:

1. 818 W. Market Street if not mowed by Friday, July 4th, Farrer/Hettinger.
2. 1105 North Street, McBride/Farrer.
3. 926 Erie Avenue if not mowed by Thursday, July 3rd, McBride/Farrer.

Deputy Mayor Farrer provided information on property in question at last weeks Board of Works meeting; Property located on the corner of Melbourne and Cicott is owned by the TP&W Rail Road. They have said the weeds will be mowed. Also Property near the Parks with oil is being addressed.

The entire report was accepted as presented, Hettinger/Farrer.

Randy Michael, Building Commissioner, presented his weekly report.

Report was accepted as presented, McBride/Hettinger.

Dumpster Request granted to:

1. Robert L. Boehme, 1522 E. Broadway, a 20 yard, from July 7th through the 21st, for roofing project, Hettinger/Farrer.
2. Sam Young, 1900 E. Market Street, 50 to 60 feet back from corner of Market Street, Farrer/McBride.
3. Helen Kabat, 811 Ban Buren Street, from July 2 through the 16th, McBride/Farrer.

Visitor Comments:

1. David Cody, 4691 Briansway, voiced concerns and dissatisfaction with the Building Commissioner. Mr. Cody has as interest in the building located at 1300 E. Broadway. He asks for the resignation of the Building Commissioner or the Mayor. Mayor Hettinger said an investigation is under way on allegations against the Commissioner and the public will be informed of the results.
2. Scott Stebbins, Logansport, made allegations of inconsistent treatment.
3. Steve Yoder, 831 20th Street, voiced dissatisfaction on behalf of taxpaying citizens.
4. George Stebbins, 4423 E. 275 North, used property located at 212-214 E. Miami Ave as an ongoing problem.
5. Terry Ulery, 3071 E CR 600 South, questions the reasoning behind the bashing of one person. He pointed out that an election is coming up and if those people don't like what's going on then vote for the next guy. Finding a solution to problems would be better.

Adjournment: 9:05 a.m.
