Centennial Wireless is hosting the fireworks for the 4th of July festival. Mayor Fincher offered thanks to Gene Powlen for leading the way in this venture. Dale Turnpaugh and crew will handle traffic control. Mayor Fincher asked that traffic directors wear reflective vests.

The Mayor's Cup Award was given to Scoops Ice Cream; the cup is awarded to those who go the "extra mile" for the community. This family brought and tore down the building next to their business on 18th Street. They then turned that empty space into a pleasant sitting area. It has made a huge improvement to that location.

Board Member Comments:

Mayor Fincher offered condolences to the family of Stan Forker on his recent unexpected death. "Stan was a great service provider to the community by directing REACT. He will be missed."

Public Comment:

- ❖ Ester Murphy, 430 Tanguy St., voiced deep concern about the property located at 437 Burlington, owned by Patricia Beckman. Ms. Murphy complained that the property is more like a junk yard.
- ❖ Gene Morehead, 324 Cole St., said people going through his neighborhood travel too fast, especially on Tipton. He sits in his yard and uses a radar gun to calculate the speed. Mr. Morehead said some people toot their horns at him for as much as three blocks. He'd like something done about the situation.
- ❖ Malynnda Lucy, 436 Tanguy St., also voiced complaints of properties owned by landlords that are not cared for; rented to people who do not care for the properties either. Ms. Lucy asked about regulations for animals in the city and how are those regulations enforced.
- ❖ Glen Huddleston, 431 Burlington Ave., complained about trucks "Jake Breaking" in his neighborhood and causing a disturbance. He suggested that a sign be put up notifying truckers that using their air breaks is against the law.

Mayor Fincher listened to all the concerns and will notify street and police departments to monitor the described situations. "Jake Breaking" signs have been placed at the entrances of the city but will check on the Burlington Ave. sign. Mayor Fincher thanked everyone for coming to the Board of Public Works and Safety will their concerns and he will do his best to correct those things wherever possible.

There being no other business before The Board of Public Works and Safety.
